CAPITAL'S LEASED WIRE.
The Edmonton Daily Capital has installed a direct leased wire and is able to publish news of events from all parts of the world a few minutes after they occur. The Capital has been the first paper in this city to publish important developments in the great European war, and is the only one using two colors of ink. It will continue to give its readers the latest war and other news—authentically and up-to-date.

LOCAL MEN ARE ANXIOUS TO BE SENT TO FRONT

Recruiting Brisk at Headquarters of 101st Rgt. and 19th Alberta Dragoons.

MEDICAL EXAMINATION PROVING VERY STRICT

Some Splendid Men Offer Services and Obtained Coveted Places in Squadron.

New men are applying for enlistment with both the 101st and the 19th Dragoons constantly throughout the day. Officers have been on duty all day since early this morning for the purpose of interviewing recruits and enlistments may be accepted until 6 o'clock this evening. The lists must be closed then and forwarded to Ottawa this evening. Some very fine men have presented themselves at the headquarters of both regiments, and have been taken on. The medical examination to which Dr. Halsey is subjecting the men who are to go as members of the Edmonton squadron with the Canadian contingent is very strict and many men who are apparently fit, have to be rejected on account of defective teeth and eyesight.

Strict Examination.
The regulations require that the sight shall be nearly perfect and the teeth, reasonably good. In order to test applicants in horsemanship they are required to mount a horse holding a stick and those accepted are quickly fitted into uniforms, officers giving them instructions about the maneuvers to be executed. Both the 101st and the 19th Dragoons are equipped with applicants, and give them instructions about the maneuvers to be executed. The barracks present the appearance of a regular military establishment. In war time, men standing in rows, awaiting the medical inspection, and others trying on uniforms and accoutrements.

Secrecy Observed.
No details are being given out respecting the date when the troops are to leave here, as it is desirable that reasonable secrecy should be observed in order to prevent any unforeseen happenings. It is stated that a number of Austrian and German reservists in the city are being watched. The entrance to the 10th barracks is guarded by a sentry with a fixed bayonet. Everybody except men wearing the British uniform must enter the barracks before being allowed to enter. Sentries are also on duty outside the officers' rooms in the 101st barracks. Col. Saunders, public works commissioner for the city, has volunteered his services and is awaiting a reply from Ottawa.

BRITISH WARSHIPS AT VLADIVOSTOK TO ESCORT RUSSIAN BOATS

Peking, Aug. 8.—China has instructed her minister at Washington and Tokio to request the United States and Japan to join with China in an effort to prevent hostilities in Chinese waters and territories, because of the far-reaching dangers connected with them.

The presence of Japanese warships off the German port of Tsing-Tau is generally construed here to mean that the Japanese has entered the war. The German authorities at Tsing-Tau have received reports that British warships have gone to Vladivostok to escort Russian troopships to Kiao-Chow for the investment of Tsing-Tau.

AMERICAN AND WIFE HELD BY GERMANS IN NUREMBERG AS SPIES

Paris, Aug. 8.—A Huntington of the American Geographical society, and his wife, were arrested at Nuremberg, Prussia, by German police and are now held in prison as spies.

Austrians Burn Villages.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 8.—Austrian troops crossed the Russian frontier near the Romanian border today and burned some villages.

HUNDRED MILLION WAR BUDGET FOR ANY EMERGENCIES

Stated Ottawa Will Pass Legislation Covering All Military Expenses.

NOT LIKELY ANY NAVAL LEGISLATION SUBMITTED

Another Army Division Will Probably Be Raised—80,000 Men on Militia

(Capital Leased Wire.)
Montreal, Aug. 8.—Ottawa budget of probably a hundred million dollars will be submitted by the government of Canada to parliament in the ensuing emergency session and will be the outstanding feature of the legislative program.

This money will be provided for the raising, equipment, despatch and pay of men going to the front in the cause of the Empire.

The necessary estimates are now in course of preparation and while so far as possible details of the proposed bill will be given it will be difficult to provide specifically for contingencies. In consequence the money will be largely voted in bulk.

Other enactments will be government and providing permanent machinery, when similar emergencies arise. It has been found that many serious situations not contemplated at all by the law have arisen.

The law has been promptly met without legal authority. That authority will be given. It is not likely that there will be any naval legislation submitted.

What can be done, however, is to send men.
The one army division being raised is likely to be followed by another. The government can quickly equip four such divisions or eighty thousand men without going beyond the establishment of the trained militia.

It stands ready to do so and cheerfully bear the entire cost. It is learned definitely that only one squadron of cavalry will be sent with the Canadian force.

BILL PASSED GIVES GOVERNMENT POWER SEIZE FOODSTUFFS
(Capital Leased Wire.)
London, Aug. 8.—Walter Runciman, secretary of agriculture introduced a bill in the house of commons today giving the government power to seize all foodstuffs, the bill passing through all its stages.

ARMY MEN OF CANADA MUST REPORT LOCAL RESERVES TO OTTAWA

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—Hon. Col. Sam Hughes this morning gave out the following official statement: "The recruiting for the special overseas force is being done by local militia officers throughout the dominion, and it is desired that intending candidates will not write to Ottawa or trouble the minister with letters and telegrams for enlistment. All such lists are to be made up and forwarded by the captains of companies and officers commanding the regiments. Applications, therefore, should be made individually in all cases to the local militia commanding officers in their own neighborhood."

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The naval department requests prominent publication of the following: "All royal naval reserve men desiring information as to transportation should apply direct to the naval service department, Ottawa."

GERMANY TO ADVANCE WHILE AUSTRIA HOLDS RUSSIANS IN CHECK

Vienna, Aug. 8.—Assurances from the Austrian war office that Austria will immediately take up the task of guarding the Russian frontier were sent to Berlin yesterday. With the declaration of war upon Russia by Emperor Franz Joseph followed by the immediate announcement of a similar declaration against Austria by the Czar, Kaiser Wilhelm may direct all of his attention to the Belgian and French campaigns for at least the next two weeks.

Russian mobilization is progressing slowly, according to advice received here. The Austrian war office is confident that with the withdrawal of only a small portion of the forces attacking Serbia the Russian advance can be checked. The German border patrols have made raids into Russian territory, burning villages, but no general fighting has occurred. A division of Russian cavalry endeavored to break over the frontier east of Jannitsburg Thursday it was learned here today, but were repulsed.

Orders are expected to be immediately issued permitting German and Austrian troops to operate in the territory of the allied countries.

Montenegro Shows Hand.

Vienna, Aug. 8.—The Montenegrin government has informed the Austrian minister that Montenegro considers itself in a state of war with Austria. As a consequence the Austrian minister has left Cetinje.

KAISER'S SCHEME HAS FAILED, SAYS MILITARY EXPERT

SAID GERMAN FLEET ON WAY TO MEET ENGLAND'S

Portugal Casts in Lot With Britain and Calls Army and Navy.

Montreal, Aug. 8.—A special cable to the Montreal Star from London says British troops have landed on French soil to cooperate with the French army in defending Paris. French troops have units with Belgian forces in Belgium and Luxembourg and have attacked the common enemy. The German attack on Liege continues, the Kaiser's forces being heavily. The German fleet that had concentrated at Kiel is rushing to battle with the English navy in the North Sea. Montenegro has declared war on Austria and Italy has called its reserves to the colors. Portugal has cast her lot with England and called her army and navy. These are the outstanding features of the great war that early despatches from the continent brought here today.

The war office had its seals of secrecy unbroken and the first news of the landing of the British troops on French soil came to the people of England from Paris.

This news and that of the union effected by the French and Belgian armies is the most significant from a military standpoint that reached here. It shows that the heroic defense of Liege by a garrison far outnumbered has afforded the time necessary, for England and France to throw their forces into action.

Even if Liege were finally battered into submission the importance of the check the German army have received there cannot be underestimated. Military experts say that strikes like a thunderbolt Emperor William had planned to rush his army across Belgium and attack Paris before the French army could present any effective obstacles and before British troops should have been sent to the aid of the French army.

OFFENSIVE MOVEMENTS BY FRENCH OR GERMAN ARMIES WILL THROW LIEGE IN SHADE

French President Sends Message to Belgian King that Men of Republic are Today Shedding Their Blood With Those of King Albert—Half Million Russians, With 700 Guns, Invade Land of Kaiser—Belgium Seizes 34 Steamers and Two Sailing Ships.

London, Aug. 8.—All eyes were turned today towards Belgium, where the unexpected stand made by the Belgian army against a German advance guard has earned praise in all quarters.

The authorities here have taken the greatest precautions to prevent the leakage of information as to military and naval movements, but indications were seen in the commandeering of large liners and the stoppage of the cross channel passenger traffic that a British expeditionary force would probably soon depart.

The possible destination of this expedition could not be ascertained and the report from Paris announcing that the landing of the British troops had evoked enthusiasm carefully hid the place of their debarkation.

President Poincaré also gave out the news in his message to King Albert of Belgium, that French troops were "shedding their blood with Belgians on the battlefield today."

The fighting around Liege, although regarded in military circles as important, is considered as merely an opening movement in the campaign, the plan of which has been kept well hidden by both German and French commanders-in-chief. No hint has yet been given as to the position of the bulk of the 24 German army corps or of the 21 French army corps. It is known that several of the German corps are near the Russian frontier. The organization of other corps from the immense body of reserves must have occurred in the mobilization of the active army who, it is assumed, are now preparing to make their first dash at the enemy.

It is pointed out by military men that any decisive offensive movement by the German or French army will involve several hundred thousands of men on each side, whose contrast will throw into the shadow the fight at Liege.

Reports from many quarters record further captures of merchant vessels.

Huge Force Invades Germany

London, Aug. 8.—Five hundred thousand Russian soldiers supported by 700 guns crossed the frontier Friday and invaded Germany, according to a despatch received by the Standard from its St. Petersburg correspondent.

Belgians Seize 34 Ships.

Antwerp—(via London)—Aug. 8.—The Belgian government today seized 34 German steamers and two sailing ships in the North Port here.

London, Aug. 8.—A British force on the Gold Coast, west Africa, has seized Port Lome, German Togoland.

French Capture Village.

Paris, Aug. 8.—French troops entered Alsace and captured the village of Altkirch, near the Swiss frontier, 17 miles west of Basel.

"A TRUCE TO PARTY STRIFE DURING WAR" SAYS LIBERAL LEADER

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—In a statement given to the press, Sir Wilfrid Laurier the liberal leader, emphasizes the fact that in the present time of crisis there should be a "truce to party strife." In full accordance with that view, the central liberal information office will not publish during the present crisis any matter which might be calculated to embarrass the government at a time of national danger. Comment which otherwise might very properly be made up on a number of Canadian political questions will be withheld until a more fitting time. Liberal leaders believe that in following such a policy was refused on the ground that there will have the approval of all patriotic Canadians.

(Capital Leased Wire.)
London, Aug. 8.—A telegram from Rome to the Central News says semaphores on the south coast of Italy report the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau making for the Adriatic. A request to the Austrian fleet for aid was refused on the ground that there had been no declaration of war between Austria-Hungary and Great Britain.

Some tactics pursued against France in 1870. They pointed out that the tactics of the German infantry in making frontal attacks of the Liege forts showed a failure to adopt the methods taught in recent years.

Salient Features in Today's War News

Indications that both British and French troops are hurrying to the assistance of the Belgians are given in French official despatches taken by the reinforcements.

French cavalry is said to have arrived at Liege, where masses of German troops are reported moving forward to support the strong advance guard which was checked by the Belgians and, according to reports from Belgian sources, lost 25,000 killed, wounded and prisoners. The German war office declares the German check not a defeat but the result of a heroic attempt of a small German force to advance in the face of difficulties.

French and German troops are said to have come into contact in Luxembourg, where several German army corps are supposed to have concentrated.

Numbers of Germans have been arrested in England on suspicion of spying.

Portugal decided to act as ally to Great Britain on the terms of an old treaty by which it must supply 10,000 men. A French newspaper despatch reports the sinking of the German cruiser Augsburg in the Baltic by a Norwegian torpedo boat.

A big Norwegian steamer struck a mine on the Dutch coast and was beached.

Transatlantic lines running from Glasgow suspended their sailings today, causing the stranding of many Americans and Canadians. The Bank of England reduced its discount rate to five per cent, owing to the improvement in the monetary situation.

A newspaper dispatch from Brussels carries a report that one of the Kaiser's nephews was captured at Liege. This is not confirmed by recent despatches.

A Copenhagen despatch states that the Kaiser's Kiel fleet was proceeding to the North Sea through the Kattegat.

The anxiety of the people of Great Britain for news of the activities of the British fleet and over reports of battles in the North Sea was shown in the house of commons today when the government was bombarded with questions.

GERMANS FAIL TO MAKE IMPRESSION ON LIEGE FORTS

Invasion Advance Retarded by Swelling of Meuse by Heavy Rains—President Poincaré Compliments King Albert—Armistice Requested by Germans is Reported to Have Been Refused—French Troops On Way to Relief of Liege.

Brussels, Aug. 8.—The war office has issued an official statement saying that 125,000 Germans participated in the assault on the forts at Liege, but that they completely failed to make any impression on the forts. Three army corps engaged in the attack were cut and rendered useless, it is declared.

"For many days," reads a statement, "our little army by tenacity and courage rendered highly valuable service and now occupies a considerable portion of our territory. Hundreds of the German soldiers taken prisoner. They appear to be fighting lethargically while their officers endeavor to pass themselves off as Frenchmen."

London, Aug. 8.—A news despatch from Brussels states that heavy rains are swelling the Meuse and its tributaries, and so retarding the German advance.

President Poincaré of France has telegraphed King Albert complimenting him on the bravery displayed by the Belgian troops in the battles with the Germans at Liege.

London, Aug. 8.—The latest despatches from Brussels indicate that the armistice of twenty-four hours asked by the Germans has been refused by the Belgians.

Returning Good for Evil.

Belfort, France, Aug. 8.—The mayor of this city issued a proclamation to the inhabitants today calling on them to treat German prisoners with respect and not to display a hostile attitude toward them in spite of the reported execution by Germans of a number of Alsatian youths who were endeavoring to cross into France to join the French army.

German Cruiser Sunk.

Paris, Aug. 8.—A dispatch published by the Petit Parisien says that the German cruiser Augsburg which bombarded the Russian port of Libau, has been sunk by a Russian torpedo boat.

German Transportation Stopped.

Paris, Aug. 8.—According to reliable information received here Belgian troops have cut the railroad between Arlon and Viroin, thus stopping all German transportation in the direction of Viroin. At Athus Belgians took the rails away bodily.

French Force Arrives.

Brussels, Aug. 8.—A force of French cavalry arrived to the east of Liege today, according to an official announcement, here. The French troops were said to be advancing.

France to the Rescue.

Paris, Aug. 8.—The operations of the Germans were based on the hypothesis of rapid success. Consequently they are organized with little regard for provisioning the army. The Belgians retarded the advance for seventy-nine hours, with the result that their army was increased with troops destined to reinforce Liege.

The confidence of the Belgians has been increased by the suspension of hostilities requested by the Germans.

King Albert, in an order to the third division and the fifteenth light brigade who assisted the heroic defence of Liege, took occasion to salute them and the army in the name of the king, adding that France and her soldiers were coming to their help.

GERMAN CORPS IS WIPED OUT

Force of Kaiser's Cavalry is Taken by Surprise; Seven Regiments, Five Thousand Men, Surrender.

London, Aug. 8.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Brussels says that a division of German cavalry which had succeeded in forcing the Meuse to the north of Liege was surprised and practically annihilated by Belgian cavalry and infantry supported by a battery of artillery. The German rout was complete. Seven German regiments surrendered, numbering 5,000 men.

The German cavalry fought bravely, but were mowed down by the Belgian battery as they charged at full speed. Twice they attempted to break the ranks of the Belgian forces, but each time were hurled back with frightful losses.

No Reply As Yet.

(Capital Leased Wire)

Brussels, Aug. 8.—(Via Paris)—Lieut. General Leman, governor of Liege, has not yet replied to the request of the Germans for an armistice.

SPLENDID BRAVERY OF BELGIANS WILL MAKE WAR HISTORY

GERMANS MOWED DOWN BY HUNDREDS NEAR TRENCHES

London, Aug. 8.—When the history of the present big European war is written it is certain that the heroic Belgians, who are holding the fortresses of Liege against overwhelming odds, will hold a proud place for their brilliant bravery and resourcefulness. Numbering only about twenty thousand, they have held out against a German force that on Wednesday was estimated at eighty thousand. It was never expected that they would be able to offer any serious resistance, and yet they have already stemmed the furious German onslaught for three precious days, and may be able to hold out until the British and French armies, which are hastening to their assistance, reach the scene of the terrible conflict. The valor of the Belgians has been of so noteworthy a character that King Albert, in a special order to the army, highly commends the heavy work of the defenders, and says it will live for ever in the history of the nation.

Though Liege is defended by forts thirty years old, many modern devices were employed by the skilful Belgian commanders. Barbed wire and mines together with artillery, strengthened the field between the forts. The Germans, failing to determine accurately the position of these field works, were cut down wholesale when they attempted to pass between the forts.

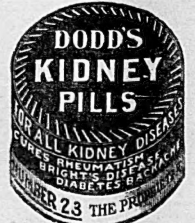

Some of the wounded Belgians, eyewitnesses of the fighting, say they saw Germans mowed down by machine guns in front of the trenches and entanglements by the gun and rifle fire of the Belgians, but they were replaced by others who crawled forward like weasels. In certain places in the fighting close to the ground was with dead the burial of which, it was said, would take at least a week. At the Belgian ministry of war it was stated that the Germans admitted their casualties at 25,000.

A Central news despatch from Brussels today says it is officially announced that the Germans have retreated from Liege after two days of the most severe fighting, in which the German losses were enormous. It is understood, however, that the Germans are in the wildest disorder. All reports agree that the German infantry were in confusion, holding an absolutely close order. This resulted in heavy casualties.

J. W. M. Jeffries, Daily Mail correspondent at Brussels, in a despatch to the Times at 6 p.m. Wednesday:

"The fight at the Mill bridge at Vise was very desperate. The German infantry were in deep masses, backed batteries of field guns and quick fiers. The 12th Belgian Line regiment took

MILITARY SIGHTS ON THE STREETS MORE SIGNIFICANT

Three Parades of Military and Ex-Military Were Held Last Night in Edmonton.

ARMED GUARDS MOUNTED AT DRAGOONS' BARRACKS German Reservists, Boasted That He Would Return to War With Information.

With people lining the street again on Jasper avenue, between McDougall and Third street, the enthusiastic scenes enacted again last night when local volunteer parades were being held. There were three different parades, the first to start being that of the United Service volunteers, a large number of their headquarters along Jasper and over the high level bridge to the south side. There was again a large turnout of ex-military men who have offered their services for the front. They were accompanied by some Scottish Pipers and Newbury bands.

About 8 o'clock, the 1st regiment, in full service dress, left the armory on Fourth street and proceeded north on First street, marching to the strains of the Bugle. Later in the evening, the Dragoons made an impressive parade along Jasper. A large number of the men were on foot, but there was a detachment of mounted men with lances who aroused great admiration and loud cheers. The crowds were very large around the newspaper bulletin boards and cheered various items of news showing the success of the arms of the Triple Entente.

The numbers of military on the streets gave the city almost the appearance of a garrison town. Last night the crowds were greater than ever and almost everywhere in the city seemed to be "down town," waiting for news.

Armed sentries have been placed on guard at the barracks, in accordance with orders from Ottawa and the instructions are to shoot anyone attempting to interfere with government property.

German Arrested

A sensation was caused in the city last night by the news that a German reservist had been arrested. It appears that a German, who was a bartender, was taken into custody by the officers of the Alberta Dragoons. The man had been telling people that he was going back to fight against Britain and that he had valuable information about Canadian troops. After a preliminary hearing before Major Grierson, he was turned over to the military police. The man told a different tale after he had been allowed to have a lawyer for a time, saying that he had been away from Germany for years and that he was not going to go to war as he would be a deserter. Thereupon he was released, but will be required to report to the military police barracks every day.

No city is more truly modern than Edmonton. Since the days of the early trading post and on up through the years until the present, the history of Edmonton's growth and development has been a continuous story of progress and advancement. The city's increase in population of more than 50% in 1914, the fact that it is the most beautiful buildings, handsome residences, magnificent warehouses, and elaborate scheme of city beautifying. "Edmonton Illustrated, 1914" is undoubtedly the finest publication of its kind ever attempted in the Dominion. The enterprise has been carried through by the Edsall and McNeil and people entirely, and at a cost of nearly $15,000. It is just off the press and will be on sale starting Monday, the 10th of the very reasonable figure of $1.50 per copy. The first run to be made is 10,000 copies, and later an edition of 25,000 copies will be printed. This book will be on sale at all book and stationery stores, on the train, at the exhibition, and elsewhere.

EMPERESS OF JAPAN CHARTERED BY ENGLAND LEAVES FOR YOKAHAMA

Yokohama, Aug. 8.—The Canadian Pacific line steamer, Empress of Japan, under charter to the British government, sailed from Yokohama yesterday for Hong Kong, escorted by a Japanese warship.

SPARE LIST IS NOT IGNORED BY STREET RAILWAY DEPARTMENT

Refuting the published statement that 500 new men have been given employment in the street railway department by Superintendent Lamont, while no regard has been paid to those on the spare list, it was stated that the department is waiting an opportunity to go to work. Superintendent John Chalmers stated yesterday afternoon that this was untrue in every particular.

"The fact of the matter is," said Mr. Chalmers, "we have taken on 500 and 400 men who are training for duty on the street cars during the week of next week. These men, however, are until they go into active service. They will be maintained on a sufficient number of men on the waiting list to take care of the 75 cars which are in use. At the end of the week, and the new men we are now training will in no way keep the men on the spare list. The spare list is not being ignored and no unfairness is being practiced against those on the spare list. Employment in the street railway service."

WINNIPEG REPORT CAUSES FLUTTER ON CHICAGO MARKETS

Chicago, Aug. 8.—After an unsettled start, wheat markets today showed a decided advance, influenced by Winnipeg dispatches that beyond question the Canadian government had been buying wheat. The market was buoyant and the price of wheat advanced 1/2 cent. Sentiment was also affected by advice that the federal authorities were sending every effort to provide for the immediate transportation of American crops to foreign markets and that arrangements were being made to bank in New York, a large amount of English government funds. Opening prices which ranged from 1/2 cent lower to 1 cent rise, were followed by an upturn all around, reaching in some cases 1 1/2 cents above last night.

Ons climbed on account of Canadian prohibition of export of oats. Offerings were very light and prices up more than 1 1/2 cents.

Active buying hoisted provisions, higher prices for hogs ruled.

Makes Patriotic Appeal. (Capital Leased Wire) Berlin, Aug. 8.—Friedrich Baumbach, former German imperial chancellor, in a patriotic appeal to the German nation, said in the columns of the Hamburg telegraph that the German nation should be united in the struggle against the enemy.

Relief Granted Germans. (Capital Leased Wire) Berlin, Aug. 8.—The German federal council has decided to grant a moratorium for the present. The courts were empowered to deal leniently with the debtors and the term for the payment of debts may be extended for three months. In certain cases the courts are authorized to bill of exchange transactions.

ONLY TWO REPORT AT CITY HALL FOR SPECIAL MEETING

A meeting of the city council was to have been held this morning, convening at 11:30 o'clock, but the hour only two reports were received at the city hall. Aldermen Smith and East made their appearance at the city hall and the meeting was adjourned. The purpose of the meeting was to receive a report from the specially appointed committee to consider and recommend the period of financial stringency, and particularly to recommend on the proposed reduction in number of city commissioners. This committee was to have met yesterday afternoon, but the meeting was postponed. It was announced that it would not hold a meeting until next Monday. In the meantime, the city council has been suspended, owing to the action of the council last Thursday night.

BULLION AMOUNTING TO $27,000,000 TAKEN INTO BANK OF ENGLAND

(Capital Leased Wire) London, Aug. 8.—Bullion amounting to $1,800,000 from South America was taken into the bank of England today. The bank has received $19,000,000 which had been sent by the bank and credited to the treasury for India. The bank has also received $1,175,000 for shipment tomorrow.

India Office Aid. London, Aug. 8.—The war office announced that the maharajah of Nepal has offered to send 25,000 British soldiers to his independent kingdom to the British government. Other independent kingdoms are making some offers.

The number of vessels under construction in the United Kingdom, as reported by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, is as follows: 145 of 2,000 tons and over, 11,137 tons, France 50 of 228,779 tons, and the United States 45 of 14,515 tons.

Bohemian Military Forces for 1913 were valued at $25,465,350.

NO HARVESTERS ARE WANTED IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA

Misunderstanding as to Terms on Which Reduced Rates Are Issued to Harvesters.

MEN FROM EDMONTON SENT TO POINTS EAST

No Tickets Will Be Issued for Points Outside Province and Only to Harvesters.

Charles S. Hotchkiss, publicity commissioner for Alberta, who has charge of the arrangements for the distribution of harvest fares in the province, states that no men are being sent from Edmonton to southern parts of the province, as all the work that is to be had there is badly needed for farmers who have failed to get crops this year.

Men are, however, being sent out as required, to eastern parts of the province, harvesting having begun at Lloydminster, Vermilion, Wainwright, Verulam, Kitchissippi and Manitowish. Seventy-five men have already been sent in response to demand for help at the reduced rate for harvesters. None are being sent, however, except in response to demand for help. Mr. Hotchkiss states that there seems to be a lot of misunderstanding as to the conditions which the reduced rates are being offered. Many men have applied for tickets for points outside the province, which the reduced rates are being offered. Tickets are only issued for Alberta, and then places to which harvesters are sent. The government is supplied with a list of all the places where men are required and no men are being sent to places not on the list.

Well put together seven seams, high storm collar and fully guaranteed rainproof. Reg. price $20.00; fair week price $10.00.

GERMAN-CANADIANS READY TO FIGHT AGAINST KAISER

Halifax, Aug. 8.—The White Star liner Celtic had all arrangements made to sail at 4 o'clock yesterday, but half an hour later the orders to sail were suddenly changed and her passengers will be landed today and forwarded by rail. No reason is given for the change. Four hundred of the Celtic's passengers were forwarded yesterday by special train and on regular trains. The evacuation of passengers by the militia is severe, and delay seems to be unavoidable. There are no doubt about the fact that the ship will be forwarded on a special train, the first to leave at 4 o'clock, and thereafter at intervals of about four hours.

DOWAGER EMPRESS OF RUSSIA SYMPATHETIC TOWARDS REFUGEES

Copenhagen, Aug. 8.—The Dowager Empress of Russia has started for St. Petersburg by way of Finland. She has permitted six hundred Russians who were expelled from Germany and who came here to travel with her on her special train.

The Weather.

The weather has been quite warm in parts of Manitoba and Saskatchewan. In the Dominion that they must not, during the continuance of the war, contribute to or participate in the floating of any loan raised in Canada for the benefit of the German emperor or his officers, or in any way assist the German government. Another condition is that they must discontinue trade with Germany and settling forth that in future coal must be sent to any country other than the United Kingdom, British possessions, the United States, France, Italy, Japan, etc.

DISSEMINATION OF FALSE WAR NEWS IS STRONGLY CONDEMNED

London, Aug. 8.—Heated condemnation was voiced in the House of Commons today by the dissemination of false news concerning the war, such as that published in regard to an alleged Russian battle of the coast of Holland.

No MONEY ORDERS AT PRESENT ISSUED FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The deputy postmaster general announces the temporary suspension of the issue of money orders on Great Britain and all European countries. This is due to the fact that the government has decided to suspend the issue of money orders on Great Britain and all European countries, when rates of exchange are abnormally high, the Canadian government, if it provides for the issue of money orders on the United Kingdom, would meet with a heavy loss.

GOOD OMS FROM

THE CENSORED DISPATCHES

The scarcity of definite and authentic war news from the scene of hostilities, owing to the censorship, while it is very trying at this juncture when the world awaits in tense nervousness for something to indicate the probable outcome, is nevertheless, what was to have been expected at least in the commencement of hostilities and must be borne by Canadians with what patience they are capable of until the plans of campaign have been sufficiently developed that their disclosure is not likely to be injurious to Britain's chances. In drawing the veil of silence the British government is following the expedient course, as the knowledge of their plans in the hands of the enemy or of the whereabouts of the British fleet might prove disastrous. This war, it must be recognized, is a real war, a struggle for the empire's existence in which Great Britain cannot afford to take any unnecessary chances.

But about the news which has so far come out, making due allowance for the fact that its origin is exclusively from friendly sources, there is a hopeful ring which cannot but impress the belief that Germany's much-advertised pre-emption for the struggle has been over-estimated. The little Belgians, not heretofore counted as a factor in a continental controversy, have succeeded in holding the German advance guard while the French form and the British make arrangements to land troops and should they succeed in holding out a few days longer the Germans will find themselves in the position not of being the aggressor delivering the crushing blow to France, but of being forced into a position of being on the defensive against an advance by the combined armies of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Holland into their own territory.

In the meantime, the British admiralty has given out the significant announcement that the North Sea is open to commercial traffic again. This announcement, while it does not divulge the whereabouts of the British fleet, at least makes it plain that the German fleet is not in the North Sea, unless at the bottom, a circumstance which indicates that the Germans have so far lost in the sea fighting. The ultimate destruction of the German fleet and the capture or destruction of the entire German mercantile marine seems almost a certainty. The story of the battle, when it is eventually given out, will probably show that the German navy has already been decisively defeated.

Over the German and Russian operations a complete lid seems to have been placed, except for the fact that there is fighting on the Prussian frontier and that a German army is marching on Warsaw, ravaging the country as they go. The Russians, however, have a system of war all of their own in which they win by retreating and drawing the enemy into their own country, depending upon the distances and the winter to frustrate the invaders' plans and decimate their forces. This may be the strategy of the present Russian operations.

In the whole situation there is this much that is clear, that Great Britain has no misgivings about the results. The discount rate has come back to five per cent., banks have reopened and with the war only just commencing business conditions have assumed an appearance of being astonishingly calm and close to normal. Than this there could be no better omen.

THE SADDEST FEATURE OF THE CRUEL WAR

Dispatches showing the terrible loss of life in the first engagements at Liege cannot but bring home to the senses some realization of the horror of this awful war. In this western country, where populations are sparse, where life is counted by no means cheap, where even a single homicide brings a thrill, the spectacle of thousands of lives being snuffed out, thousands of human bodies rent and torn by shot and shell, is too terrible even for contemplation.

But even this is not the most heartrending feature of the war. In the loss of life among the soldiers there is the ever-present circumstance that each one of these thousands of slain, so lightly and carelessly estimated in the dispatches, may represent the central unit of a home. The wife, mother and children remain behind. They are not gathered into the arms of death by some hurtling missile, but remain with their memory—"the only friend which grief can call its own"—of the happier days before the cruel war when they were protected, comforted and fed by the hand of the one man whose life has been the most precious thing in the little circle which represented to them the centre of the world.

Thousands and hundreds of thousands of these tragedies must remain in the wake of the war. For the suffering and anguish entailed in each and every one of them the mad Kaiser must be adjudged an inhuman ghoul.

THE CRUX OF THE QUESTION IN A SINGLE PHRASE.

When Sir Edward Grey asked the German government to counsel Austria to submit the differences between Austria and Serbia to arbitration, the answer he received was that Germany would not consider proposing such an indignity to Austria as that they should submit to arbitration any question between that country and a third-rate power such as Serbia.

Herein is found the crux of the whole question over which Europe is fighting at the present moment, and it could not have been expressed in fewer words.

The Kaiser's idea of justice is that might is right; that the nation which cannot enforce its claims is not entitled to justice. Herein the Kaiser is a barbarian, a pirate and an anarchist. The British idea of justice has been that it is something to which all are entitled, but designed especially to protect the weak.

IN THE PARLOR CAR

Railway and Shipping News.

Effective tomorrow—Grand Trunk Pacific trains 1 and 4 will be discontinued between Watrous and Edmonton. No. 4 will leave Edmonton tonight at 6:30 and No. 1 will arrive at 11:45 tomorrow forenoon for the last time under the present schedule. These trains will continue to operate between Winnipeg and Watrous except on Sundays. The train which runs between Edmonton and Watrous every day will hereafter run daily except Sunday. Trains 17 and 18, which run between Biggar and Watrous, have been cancelled and in their stead a mixed service will be run weekly.

In answer to the indictment formulated by the Interstate Commerce Commission against the mismanagement of the New Harvard road, C. S. Mellen says that it is a political report offered for political purposes. As to the statement that action may be taken to make the directors pay some of the millions back to the shareholders, Mr. Mellen says that the supposition that such action should be taken is a gross error. As far as he is concerned, he says that his chief business at present is to get away into the woods; he is not bothering about the report of the commission to the senate; but he is thankful that it is to be dropped. A criminal he is made a leader and not a mere "dub," totally insignificant, he is to be indicted and tried. It is something in being great, even in crime.

This, with a sardonic smile. In referring to the suit which may be brought against him personally, he says, "Blessed are those who expect nothing for that is what they will get." Mr. Mellen says that he has nothing to regret; that he did what was right; and that he is willing to be judged by public opinion. He is amazed that so large a portion of the blame should be placed upon him, and that it should be made scapegoats. The dead cannot be put in the dock.

And thus Mr. Mellen goes on, in that satirical way that is his making epigrams full of sparks; talking jauntily with his valises packed and ready for the road and not into the train. That trifles of a loss—why, it was only $30,000,000. The shareholders will overcome it in time. As for the management of the road, Mr. Mellen says that it was not his management or was it the management of Mr. Morgan—that was ever enhanced by some $32,000,000.

Although C. S. Mellen has his valise in his hand ready for the train, he is not going to leave yet. He is waiting for the telephone to the New York Times. He said he was forbidden to talk by his lawyers, but he did not mind him anyway it made no difference. As long as you had the money you could get any legal opinion you liked backed by the best talent.

His chief care now was to get to nature; the river and the hills, where he might forget all this bother. If he was indicted he would be ready; but he was willing to protect the memory of Mr. Morgan, than whom there was no man with whom he would rather work and who had really been the friend of the company in all the transactions which were now the subject of an advertisement in the paper which would turn out all right in the end. And so—his for the trout streams and happy days and pleasant days—with no haunting memories of the humble shareholders, eating "boloney" sausage for supper as the result of the gambling away of $30,000,000.

With the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific's main line from Winnipeg to Prince Rupert big tracts of country have been opened up, offering splendid opportunities for agriculture, dairying and fruit growing. The Grand Trunk Pacific railway, although it has no agricultural land for sale, stands ready to provide the homemaker with every assistance in choosing a suitable location. It has issued this week for the information of intending settlers a "Landseeker's Guide" dealing with conditions in western Canada and describing the lands served by the railway in the various districts of the approximate price at which holdings can be bought. This new railway publication also gives the prospective settler information on home-stead planning, customs regulations, freight rates, etc. It can be obtained from any of the company's agents.

"Cholera Infantum"

IS ONE OF THE MOST COMMON SUMMER COMPLAINTS OF INFANTS

Cholera Infantum begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stools becoming irritative, and in many cases vomiting and purging set in. The child rapidly loses flesh, and is soon reduced to great gauntness.

Mrs. George H. Bogue, of Ontario, writes: "I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Cholera Infantum. My child was so sick I did not think she could live, as we could not lift her up when we moved her. Her bowels would not move, and she was so sick, and it cured her also. Then again, have told other friends about it, and they have found that it is a something to have in the house all the time."

The Adventures of Kathlyn

By Harold MacGrath.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.
Kathlyn Hare, believing her father, Col. Hare, is peril, has assumed her father's name in California to go to him in Alaska. Unhappily, however, she has been the victim of a plot, and has been imprisoned in the hands of the public mart.

Upon her arrival in Alaska Kathlyn is forced by the public mart, who find her father, to be taken to the public mart, where she is sentenced to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts.

John Bruce, an American and fellow-prisoner of the Indians, has brought Kathlyn to Alaska, where her life. The Indians, who carried her from the scene of her trials, become frightened and run away, separating her from Bruce and the rest of the party.

After a ride filled with peril Kathlyn takes refuge in a ruined temple, but her father is also the victim of a plot, and is forced to flee from her. She finds a retreat in the jungle, only to fall into the hands of a band of savage traders, who bring her to Alaska to the public mart.

The public mart, who find her father, is not unresponsive, throws her into the hands of the public mart, where she is sentenced to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts.

Supplied with weapons and servants by the public mart, she is sent to the public mart, where she is sentenced to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts.

ONTARIO LADIES' COLLEGE

And Ontario Conservatory of Music and Art, Whiteby, Canada, Stands For Efficient and Cultured Young Womanhood

The new $25,000 Grammarian, with swimming pool, affords facilities for Scientific Physical Education, and is the only Ladies' School in this country. The strength of the staff may be judged from the fact that the Ontario Ladies' College has been awarded the highest honors in the Literary Department. All the other colleges are equally well provided for.

REV. J. H. HAKE, Ph.D., Principal.

window, turned and asked her lord what he was sending the Colonel back. To him Unhappily gave a white powder. "Tonight you say, Ramabai give a banquet."

"Yes, Hazoreo."

"Well, put this in his cup and your obligation to me is paid."

The majordomo stared a long time at that little packet of powder. A light dawned on him as he saw the powder.
